What We're Buying: Denise Rich's Favorite Footwear

Have you bought anything you loved lately? In the PEOPLE StyleWatch offices, the answer to that question is usually "Yes." This week, we're sharing our absolute can't miss picks in our gallery, What We're Loving Right Now — as well Denise Rich's fabulous new pair of shoes.

Denise Rich, Songwriter and Founder of the Gabrielle's Angel Foundation for Cancer Research: This time of year, I'm busy planning for my Foundation's annual Gala, the Angel Ball (which was last night — see Sofia Vergara's gorgeous dress!). So I am constantly on the move but have to remain stylish. My favorite way to do that is with my favorite Cavalli women's leather slipper. They are extremely comfortable for running from meeting to meeting during the day, and the gold trimmings and small heel make them easy to transition from the office to dinner out at night. Wearing these slippers with Keysocks heightens the comfort level even more because their unique design helps keep my feet warm on cooler fall days in New York.

Denise Rich is a songwriter who has created hits for Mandy Moore, Diana Ross and Jessica Simpson. She started the Gabrielle's Angel foundation to honor her daughter, who died of leukemia in 1996. In addition to fundraising through her annual galas, she also has partnered with Keysocks to donate the net proceeds from these socks to her charity. For more, follow her on Twitter.
